
DC Resident Tuition Support

FY 2002 Proposed Operating Budget: $0
FY 2002 Proposed Capital Budget: $0

The DC Resident Tuition Support program is established to afford high school graduates from the District of Columbia the benefits of in-state tuition at state colleges and universities outside the District of Columbia, and for other purposes. In general, the purpose is to establish a program that enables college-bound residents of the District of Columbia to have greater choices among institutions of higher education.

The FY 2002 proposed operating budget is $0, a decrease of $17,000,000 from the FY 2001 approved budget.

Budget Summary

The FY 2002 proposed operating budget for D.C. Resident Tuition Support agency is $0, a decrease of $17,000,000 or 100 percent from the FY 2001 approved budget. For FY 2002, funding is proposed to be transferred to the State Education Office (SEO). The SEO will perform the services of this program; therefore, the related ongoing costs of this activity are incorporated within the SEO's operating budget for FY 2002.